"A script is a private document...not the Pentagon Papers. Who has the right to quote it out of context and review it as part of a national news story? If people want to steal something, at least let them go after the sixth draft, which is what we're shooting now."

L.A. Times
Monday, June 24, 1991